

Kansas City Art Institute
WARWICK SOCIETY EVENTS
2010

Saturday, February 20

6:30-11:30 p.m.

125th Anniversary Gala

This once-in-a-lifetime event (www.kcai.edu/gala) benefiting KCAI's student scholarship fund will feature an unforgettable performance by internationally acclaimed artist and KCAI alumnus Nick Cave ('82, fiber). Barbara Hall Marshall will serve as the evening's honorary chair. This black-tie optional experience will include a plated dinner, open bars and "living" student work. Warwick Society members receive a 10% discount.

Wednesday, March 10

6:00-8:00 p.m.

Craft & Social Practice Class

Be a KCAI student for an evening! Members are invited to come to the Craft & Social Practice class for an evening not to be missed. You will join 16 KCAI students in their class in Epperson Auditorium taught by fiber instructor Tracy Krumm. This class explores how craft practices can help the community. While members don't have to complete the normal required reading, members will be learning a craft and creating their own project with help from the students.

Thursday, May 6

6:00-7:30 p.m.

Ceramics glass presentation by George Timock

KCAI ceramics faculty member, George Timock, will be presenting on the ceramics department's newest technique: kiln-formed glass. Vastly different from the traditional art of blown-glass, guests will see firsthand the in-depth process and intricacies of this exciting new technique at KCAI.

Sunday, June 27

7:30-9:00 a.m.

Art of the Car Concours™ Preview

See the Art of the Car Concours™ in action! Join us on the Vanderslice terrace for a continental breakfast and mimosas to watch the vehicles roll in for the show. You will have a chance to see the vehicles and event like no one else. Members can also chat with the exhibitors once the vehicles are in place. Tickets for the Concours will be available for a discounted rate of $10. All proceeds benefit the student scholarship fund.

Tuesday, July 27

6:00-7:30 p.m.

TomBoy Design Studio

Join us for this enjoyable and interesting evening with alumna Laura McGrew ('90, painting) at her store, TomBoy Design Studio, in the Crossroads. Laura will discuss her successful clothing design business (www.tomboydesign.net) and discuss how a design goes from drawing table to sales floor.

Tuesday, September 14

6:00-7:30 p.m.

An evening at Mike & Stacey Koon's Plaza condominium

Warwick Society members Mike and Stacey Koon will be graciously opening their home for this lovely fall evening on the Plaza. Mike and Stacey will discuss how they became interested in the world of art and their purchases along the way. Members will be able to tour the Koon's collection of artwork and items discovered near and far.

Saturday, November 6

9 a.m.-1:00 p.m.

Make-Your-Own-Art Activity Day

Only once a year! ... come to campus and create your very own work of art to take home and enjoy. Your family and friends will be so impressed! (Workshops 9 a.m.-12 p.m.; Lunch 12-1 p.m.)

Tuesday, December 7th

6:00-7:30 p.m.

Kathy Barnard Studio visit

Join us for an exciting evening in glass-etching artist Kathy Barnard's studio and gallery in the Crossroads (www.kathybarnardstudio.net). Nationally recognized for her commercial, residential and religious work, Kathy creates etched, carved and stained glass panels and windows on a variety of scales. Some of her more public work in Kansas City can be seen at the Midland Theater, the Jewish Community Center and the RLDS Temple in Independence.
