'The Sound of Music' is a Wonder, while art makes a statement | By Tim Engle, The Star

car show

Car lovers, this one's for you: The third annual Art of the Car Concours, featuring a variety of vintage and classic automobiles (as well as motorcycles, bikes and fire trucks), takes over the Kansas City Art Institute campus from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Saturday. Admission is $10; kids younger than 10, free. Benefits the college's scholarship fund. 4415 Warwick Blvd. www.kcai.edu/concours

theater

In 1948, KC businessman Eddie Jacobson put his friendship with President Harry Truman on the line as he advocated U.S. support for the creation of a Jewish homeland in Palestine. The play "Eddie" tells the story through Jacobson's eyes. It's 7 p.m. Thursday at Congregation B'nai Jehudah, 12320 Nall Ave., Overland Park. Tickets $15. VIP tix, $35 or $50 for two, include a reception; Harry's grandson Clifton Truman Daniel is expected to be there. 913-663-4050

stevie!

"Superstition." "You Are the Sunshine of My Life." "Uptight (Everything's Alright)." "I Just Called to Say I Love You." No doubt you have your own Stevie Wonder favorite, and you just may hear it at Wonder's Friday night show at Starlight Theatre. Tickets are $45-$350; showtime is 8 p.m. 816-363-7827; www.kcstarlight.com

chuck!

We confess we'd never heard of country singer Chuck Wicks until he cha-cha'd on "Dancing With the Stars" with his girlfriend, pro dancer (and country singer) Julianne Hough. Wicks didn't win "Dancing," but he might win your heart Thursday with a free 7 p.m. show in the Power & Light District. It's part of the district's Hot Country Nights series, every Thursday through Sept. 3. www.powerandlightdistrict.com
