

60 Second Take: The Local Face of Globalism

An Open Call for Videos

In the exhibition On-Screen: Global Intimacy, ten artists engage globalism as lived experience in Africa, the Caribbean, Asia, and the United States.

In what ways does globalization reach Kansas City? You can share your experience of globalism by creating a one-minute video for the project, 60-Second Take: The Local Face of Globalism.

To participate

1. Submit a 60 second video(s) in one of the following formats (WebM, .AVI, .MPEG4, .MPEGS, 3GPP, .WMV, .MOV, .FLV) on a DVD or flash drive by 5 p.m. Saturday, March 12. Videos must be less than 2GB and one minute or less (including any title and credits.) You can submit more than one video. Each creator should make sure their videos contain no copyright infringement. Title your video files as follows: LastnameFirstnameVideoNumber.mov. [ex., SmithJohn01.mov]
2. Fill out and detach the lower section of this call and deliver with your video file to the Artspace or fill out electronically and e-mail this pdf with your video to artspace@kcai.edu.

For more detailed information about creating and formatting videos for this project, please visit: http://www.youtube.com/t/creators_corner. If you need technical assistance, e-mail us at artspace@kcai.edu.

Videos selected for 60-Second Take: The Local Face of Globalism will be on view at the H&R Block Artspace at the Kansas City Art Institute and on our Artspace YouTube site March 19–31. A closing reception will be hosted by the Artspace from 6 to 8 p.m. Friday, March 25

On-Screen: Global Intimacy is on view at the H&R Block Artspace at the Kansas City Art Institute Feb. 4 through March 31. You can submit videos via e-mail or drop off videos in person at the Artspace, located at 16 East 43rd St. Public hours are noon to 5 p.m. Tuesday through Friday and 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. Saturday.
