Below are commonly used lenders that KCAI borrowers have used to pay for school. All lenders follow the federal regulations that control the basic features of your student loan, such as interest rates, loan maximums and when repayment begins. Processing times may vary from lender to lender. Some lenders sell their loans to secondary markets, while others hold them throughout the life of the loan. Some lenders and secondary markets offer repayment options that may save you money. You are free to choose a lender not on this list nor will suffer no penalty for choosing a lender not listed below. If you are choosing a different lender, please provide below the Lender Code, Lenders Name, and Address.
